

Range Rover Register- Facebook Page Rules

ALL page contributors are expected to be polite whether they be RRR members or page members.

The Range Rover Register does not allow:-

- attempts to recruit for other Facebook groups or external sites or groups without express permission from page Admin
- discussion or content relating to politics, religion or sport.
- profanity/swearing or obscene/coarse language or images, insulting comments or images, lewd or adult images
- promote commercial interests without express permission from page Admin
- attacks on the RRR brand or page or RRR members/page members including posting unfairly negative or defamatory comments, images or videos
- content that could incite hatred, discrimination or violence, against the RRR, any individual or group of individuals
- trademark infringement or 'brand jacking'
- page contributors/ RRR members to block any other page contributor/RRR member

The page Administrators will have final say in all cases but should they disagree on a course of action, the decision will be arbitrated by the RRR Chairperson.

Depending on the infringement, sanctions include deletion of posts or threads, 'muting' members for a set period or removal of members from the page either for a set time period or permanently via blocking. Severe infractions may be reported to FB.
